

It's Not a Matter of Choice
It's a Duty
BUY a 4th Liberty Bond Don't wait to be solicited. It's a debt you owe the Government which protects you and your property.

CITIZENS' SAVINGS BANK OF OWOSSO

THE BEST OF DRUGS
AT SPRAGUE'S.

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.
All the Latest Magazines, Papers and Books :: ::
NOVELTIES, POST CARDS, ETC.

Sprague & Co.
107 North Washington Street

There is No Dishonor in True Economy

Do not hesitate to lay aside a reasonable portion of your income for the future.
The Owosso Savings Bank

ELECTRICITY

for lighting and power is universally recognized to be far superior to any other method. It is the cheapest and safest and most convenient.

Call on Brandel & Lietzau and let them demonstrate to you or better still let them place and outfit temporarily in your house and be convinced. No charges made for this.

BRANDEL & LIETZAU
214 West Main St., Owosso

The Times Advertisements Pay

APPLE TREES AND PEACH TREES
They are Scarce This Year---Stock Will Not Last Long

We offer in limited quantity subject to stock being unsold on receipt of orders. Apple and Peach Trees of excellent quality, guaranteed true to name and of Pedigree Bred Strain, as follows:

APPLE TREES
Steele's Red (top worked)
Jonathan
Baldwins
Duchess
Northern Spy
R. I. Greening
Winter Banana
Rome Beauty
Wagon
Snow
Grimes Golden
Yellow Transparent, etc.

PEACH TREES
Elberta
Champion
New Freedom
Eagle Mammoth
Crawfords
Dewey
J. H. Hale
St. John
Smock
Fitzgerald
Salway
Kalamazoo, etc.

On account of war conditions, seedling stock for propagation is almost unobtainable. Trees will be higher and scarcer in following years.
Complete Line of Nursery Stock. Write for Prices.

The Greening Nursery Co.
(1,500 Acres) Agents Wanted Monroe, Mich.

LOCAL NEWS

Frank La Haine has been appointed to the police force to succeed Samuel Chavez, who resigned last week.

Wanted—Girl for general housework.
No washings. Union phone 183. Look box 36, Owosso.—Adv

Miss Bess Carland arrived home in Corunna Friday from Washington, where she is employed by the government.

A piece of jewelry is a lasting reminder of the giver. The Allison Jewelry Store.—Adv

A son, John Roderick Phillips, was born Dec. 4th, to Capt. and Mrs. M.
J. Phillips at Oshard hospital, Los Angeles, Calif.

William F. Wilson, of Owosso, has started suit for divorce against Florence Wilson. They were married in 1911 and he says she deserted him in 1913 in Bremen, Ind.

Fred Welch, who recently sold his elevator to the Isbell Bean Co., has opened offices in the Citizens' Savings bank building. He will conduct a wholesale grain business.

Ben Cross, 80 years old was brought from the county farm to the county jail Monday and is being held as an insane person. He is not violent. He formerly lived in Owosso and was employed as a machinist at the car shops.

Earl L. Slater, 16 years old, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Slater, in Owosso township, Monday morning of pneumonia developing from influenza, after an illness of a few days. The young man had been attending school in Owosso.

The furniture store owned by W. J.
Simeon at Ovid was destroyed by fire Friday, entailing a loss of $10,000 with insurance covering a third of the loss. Mr. Simeon went from Corunna to Ovid in September, buying the stock of Voorheis & Son.

Fred Wildermuth, Jr., was taken to the county jail Saturday night and is registered there as insane. Mr.
Wildermuth has been in poor health for some time and it is believed that this has undermined his mentality.
He was taken into custody after he had shown signs of becoming violent.

The joint will of Mr. and Mrs.
Leonard Zintel, of Owosso, was filed in probate court Thursday with a petition that it be admitted to probate.
It directs that their estate of $5,600 be converted into cash and divided equally among their four children.

The case of M. and Zach Crawford, of Perry, against H. B. Stevens has been appealed to the circuit court from Justice Botsford's court in Perry. The jury returned a verdict of no cause for action and costs of $21 were assessed against the plaintiff.

The motion of the attorneys for the plaintiff for the doubling of the verdict of $6,630 given the Superior Coal Co. vs. the Ann Arbor railroad company was argued Thursday. Judge Collins directed the attorneys to file briefs and a further hearing will be held on December 16.

The county road commissioners have renewed their contract with the T. Z. Hoehler Co., of Toledo, bond salesman, to take care of all of the road bonds the county issues during the coming year. The board will issue $70,000 worth at once to pay for work already done.

W. H. Wilson and wife, doing business as the Wilson Lumber Co., of Corunna, have started suit against Mary Reed, of Vernon township to collect a bill of $640.76 for lumber which the defendant purchased but which they say has never been paid for.

Bert Brenner, aged 37 years, died Monday at his home in New Haven township of pneumonia. The funeral was held Wednesday. Mr. Brenner's widow and six children, the oldest eleven years, survive and all are ill with influenza. His parents, Mr. and Mrs.
John Brenner, and nine brothers and three sisters also survive.

A trunk containing two cases of whiskey was seized at the M. C. depot in this city Friday by Under Sheriff Sproule. It had been checked as baggage, it is thought, by a well known man whose name is often seen in print, but who, while he came to the depot with a prominent north of Owosso farmer, while Sproule was there, did not claim the "baggage."

A reorganization of the Auto Sales company has been effected, with Geo.
Stanton the only member of the original company remaining. The new members are John Cutler, Charles Gladden and Roy Calhoun. Mr. Calhoun has been chief engineer at the water works for several years, while Mr. Gladden has been employed in an official capacity at the State Savings bank. He will complete his work at the bank January 1.

Mrs. Nellie Calkins, of Owosso, Monday, started divorce proceedings against her husband, Floyd Calkins, former Owosso grocery clerk, charging cruelty. She says that a year after their marriage in 1903, Calkins started to drink and the habit has grown on him to such an extent that he cannot resist it. She says that when he is drinking, he strikes her and that his conduct has made life unbearable. A property settlement has been reached and no alimony is sought.

Mrs. A. Loomas of Redfield, South Dakota, is visiting at the homes of E.
O. and Geo. M. Dewey.

E. J. Hayes has sold his grocery stock on Corunna avenue to N. J. & J. C.
Reed and left for Wakarusa, Ohio, to reside.

City Treasurer Growe has the tax roll and taxpayers may pay taxes at the city hall. The winter rate is $13.31 per thousand.

A Christmas gift is ever a constant reminder of the giver. What could be nicer than a piece of jewelry? The Allison Jewelry Store.—Adv

Private Lawrence Valentine was killed in action Oct. 6. Word was received by his wife who with a three-month old child survive him.

The body of Mrs. Homer Cookley, formerly Miss Emma Spiegel of this city, was brought to Owosso Wednesday for burial, from her home near Lansing.

Wilfred Cassidy, aged 23 years, died Monday at his home in Corunna of pneumonia. Surviving are his parents, two sisters and one brother. The funeral was held Wednesday.

Henry Schmidt, aged 27 years, died at his home on Prindle street Tuesday, from pneumonia. The funeral was held Thursday, Rev. T. G. Hahn officiating.
The widow and two children survive.

Private O. D. Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Snyder who live south of the city, is recovering from a bullet wound received in October. His letter while recovering reached his parents before any official notice of the casualty. He is a member of Co. M.

County Road Commissioner Bailey, City Engineer Brewer and Commissioner Hanscom are in Chicago attending a national good roads meeting.

A new night message rate has been established by the Western Union Telegraph Co., making it possible to send ten words for 20 cents to reasonable distances with 50 cents the maximum for any distance.

Milo Collins, aged 16 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Collins of Henderson, died Thursday of pneumonia. He has been attending the Owosso high school and was a member of the foot ball team. His parents and three brothers survive.

Fred Francis, aged 37 years, died Monday at his home on S. Washington street from pneumonia. The funeral was held Wednesday from the home.
Surviving are his widow and two children. He was employed by the Consumers' Power Co.

The remains of Miss Viola Barnes were brought from Kalamazoo to Owosso Friday for funeral at Oak Hill cemetery. Miss Barnes' home was in Honduras, Central America, and she was at Kalamazoo attending the Normal school. She was a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Niles Wiggins.

George W. Renwick, aged 68 years, died Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. R. Renwick, south of Corunna after a long illness. The funeral was held Wednesday at the home, Rev. Allen, of Corunna, officiating. He was instructor in music in the Muskegon schools for twenty years.

William Bell has returned to his duties at the normal training camp at Philadelphia after being with his parents during the very serious illness of his father, George Bell. It is hoped he will be released from service so that he may attend to the bakery business during his father's recupera-tion.

"All United States Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness of series I. E. dated September 3, 1918, and maturing January 3, 1919, are hereby called for redemption on December 19, 1918, at par and accrued interest pursuant to the provision for such redemption contained in the certificates. On December 19, 1918, interest on all Certificates of said series will cease to accrue."

Mrs. George North, aged 35 years, passed away at the family home on Hickory street Monday after an illness of three days with pneumonia.
She had nursed her husband through pneumonia and had not given in to her illness until too late to save her life. Mrs. North was born in Canada and came to Owosso from Detroit in 1912. The funeral was held Wednesday, Rev. W. R. Blachford officiating.

Mrs. John Martin, aged 73 years, passed away at the home of her son, John, in this city Monday, after a short illness of pneumonia. The funeral was held Thursday, Rev. Webber of St. Johns church officiating. Surviving are her husband, one son and two daughters, Mrs. Louis Hochstadt, of Detroit, and Mrs. William Greenthal of Owosso. Mrs. Martin had lived in Owosso fifty years, coming here from Germany.

WANTED—Low or standing timber.
Any place, all kinds and grades suitable for merchantable use or lumber. Will receive in car loads at your nearest R.
R. station. For details, write, call, or telephone 3838, John Pease, Log Agent, French Lumber & Mfg. Co., Lansing, Mich.

Three Great
Inducements
to Holiday Shoppers—

1st, NEW GOODS
2nd, REASONABLE PRICES
3rd, QUALITY GUARANTEED

The Allison Jewelry Store
L. P. BALL, Jeweler and Optometrist
OWOSSO, MICH.

The only place in this part of the state where you can find a battery in stock to fit your car or get a service battery while yours is being repaired or recharged by expert workmen. We also carry a full line of auto supplies, tires, etc. Our motto:
THE BEST FOR THE LEAST MONEY

BRANDEL & LIETZAU
214 WEST MAIN STREET, OWOSSO

ATTENTION
Shiawassee Farmers

SWIFT & CO. are now doing business in their new location and want your

Cream and Eggs

It will pay you to see them before selling elsewhere. ::

SWIFT & COMPANY
335 W. Main St. Union Phone 297

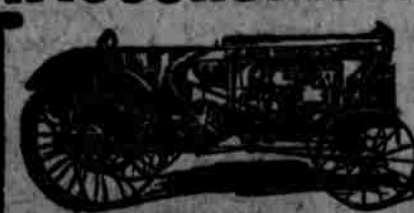

"Onyx" Hosiery

You Get GOOD Value at ANY Price—Silk, Lisle or Cotton 25c to $5.00 per pair

Emery-Beers Company, Inc.

WHOLESALE 163-161 EAST 24th ST. NEW YORK

Wisconsin Farm Tractor

Burns Kerosene
Rated 16-32

5x6 1/2 4-cylinder motor pulls four 14-inch plows. Ample power for threshing and filling silos. Weight 5440 lbs. ready for work; light enough for discing, seeding, harrowing, harvesting.
Write for Catalog. Good Dealers Wanted.

Wisconsin Farm Tractor Sales Co., 123 W. Madison St., Chicago

FOR YOUR JOB PRINTING
TRY THE TIMES.